

Clarification CRC in relation to the specific incident in the match
Ionikos v Aris played on 4.2.2023. (Offside)

Since this incident a number of discussions have taken place amongst match officials; it is clear the interpretation of this situation differs on whether the defender 'deliberately plays' the ball or whether it 'deflects' off his foot.

Clarification & Interpretations

IFAB states under 'Football Terms' :

- Deliberate – 'An action which the player intended/meant to make; it is NOT a 'reflex' or unintentional reaction.

IFAB states under Law 11 :

'The following criteria should be used, as appropriate, as indicators that a player was in control of the ball and, as a result, 'deliberately played' the ball :

- The ball travelled from distance and the player has a clear view of it. ✓
- The ball was not moving quickly. * ✓
- The direction of the ball was not unexpected. ✓
- The player had time to co-ordinate their body movement i.e it was not a case of stretching or jumping or a movement that achieved limited contact/control. ✓
- A ball moving on the ground is easier to play than a ball in the air. * N/A in this case

Other Observations

- The ball travelled from approximately 15m
- The defender had sufficient time to adjust his body to play the ball
- He was in control of his actions (not stretching or jumping)
- The defender was clearly aware of the close proximity of the attacking player (who was not in an offside position – no impact) close by and deliberately played the ball to prevent the opportunity of the attacker to play the ball

Conclusion

- Correct decision – No Offside
